

When we talk about a phrasal verb we talk about a phrase (such as take off or look down on) that combines a verb with a preposition or adverb or both and that functions as a verb whose meaning is different from the combined meanings of the individual words.

Example:

Dre must take off his jacket to train.

Mr. Han must look at Dre and tell him what to do.